

Children Learn to Cook

Pretend soup and other real recipes : a cookbook for preschoolers & up

by Mollie Katzen

A vegetarian cookbook by the makers of the Moosewood Collective trilogy introduces children to the world of cookery with such recipes as "Green Spaghetti" and "Zucchini Moons," and encourages healthy eating by helping them make meals themselves.

Kids' first cookbook : delicious-nutritious treats to make yourself!

by American Cancer Society

A collection of easy-to-make recipes for breakfast foods, snacks, main dishes, drinks, and desserts

The Spatulatta cookbook : recipes for kids, by kids, from the James Beard award-winning Spatulatta Web site

by Isabella Gerasole

Accompanied by basic cooking tips and techniques, the hosts of the Spatulatta Cooking 4 Kids Online Web site present this easy-to-use, kid-friendly cookbook that features traditional recipes, school lunch ideas, and complex ethnic dishes such as "My Big Fat Italian Dinner."

DK children's cookbook

by Katharine Ibbs

Presents illustrated explanations of cooking terms, equipment, techniques, preparation tips, advice on healthy eating, and more than fifty recipes

Emeril's there's a chef in my family! : recipes to get everybody cooking

by Emeril Lagasse

Complete with 76 recipes, a colorful follow-up to There's a Chef in My Soup! by the media darling of the culinary world is designed to get the whole family into the act of creating tasty treats together.

New Hanover County Library

201 Chestnut Street
Wilmington, North Carolina 28401 | 910-798-6301
www.nhclibrary.org/