Events and Programs

Obscure Movie Night

TUES. NOV 3
7:00 PM | All Ages

This indie film follows two young Native American men traveling from Idaho to Phoenix to retrieve the ashes of one of their fathers. The film helped bring awareness to Native filmmakers telling their own stories and became a landmark in Native American cinema. The screenplay was written by acclaimed author Sherman Alexie.

Local Author Fest

THUR. NOV 5
6:30 PM | All Ages

Come meet local authors, listen to a Q and A, enjoy light refreshments, and shop books and author swag!

This even will be held at Salem Community Center 151 West 300 South

Stress, Grief, and Loneliness

THUR. NOV. 10
7:00 PM | Ages 18+

Curious about counseling or wondering if it could help you? Join Cassy Pierce, CMHC, of Pierce Point Counseling, for a practical, down-to-earth talk about counseling, managing stress and grief, and navigating the holidays, with time for questions.

Frost Science

THUR. NOV. 12
4:00 PM | Ages 8-13

Discover American innovation through hands-on STEM activities! Each month we'll focus on a different area of STEM and the men and women who have expanded our knowledge and understanding.
November theme: Aviation

Lit Quiz Night

FRI. NOV 13
12:00-1:00 PM | Ages 18+

Teams of 3-6 compete for prizes, enjoy snacks, and have fun! No team, no problem! Register solo, and we can help you join a team. Register with a librarian.

November quiz theme: Holiday books, cozy crime, mystery.

Bread Bake-off: Literary Loaves

SAT. NOV 14
12:00-1:00 PM | All ages

Bake & compete for the best book-themed bread! Your bake should be inspired or interpreted by a book title, character, theme, setting, or mentions of bread in the text. Can't bake? Come taste!
Sign up online or in person.

Native American Heritage Month

TUES. NOV 17
6:00 PM | All Ages

Experience the power of Native American culture through traditional song and dance performed live. All ages welcome.

Creative Space

THUR. NOV 19
6:00 | Age 16+

Bring your unfinished craft projects to the library and enjoy an open crafting space with fellow makers. Whether you knit, crochet, scrapbook, sew, journal, or create in another way, we provide the time and space —you bring the project.
