

Raising Readers

Parents and caregivers are the first and most important reading teachers. These books provide plans to make a big impact, not a big project.

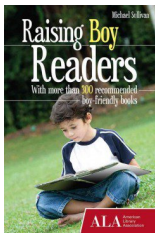

The reading zone : how to help kids become skilled, passionate, habitual, critical readers

by Nancie Atwell
Provides teachers with a method to help students develop into passionate, life-long readers.

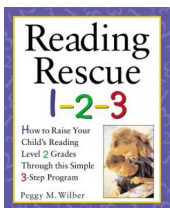

The Ordinary Parent's Guide to Teaching Reading

by Jessie Wise
An accessible primer on phonics-based teaching filters out typical obscure, political, and gimmicky practices to provide parents with simple steps on teaching children how to read, providing a wealth of tools...advice, and...guidelines.

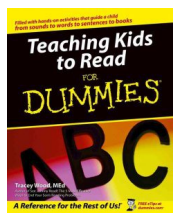

Raising boy readers

by Michael Sullivan Conveys an understanding of the differences common among...boys and how they affect reading. It provides practical approaches to promote reading. More than 300 boy-friendly books are recommended.

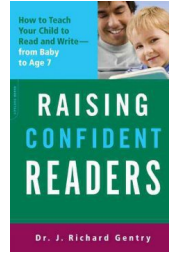

Reading rescue 1-2-3 : raise your child's reading level 2 grades through this simple 3-step program

by Peggy M. Wilber
Shows parents how to help their children raise reading levels by following a 3-step learning program that builds comprehension strategies, strengthens phonic skills, and creates confident readers.

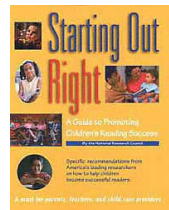

Teaching kids to read for dummies

by Tracey Wood
Offers suggestions and activities to help children learn literacy skills, with advice on sharpening listening skills, correcting errors, and choosing the right books.

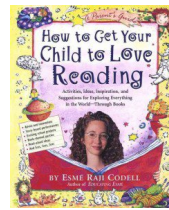

Raising confident readers : how to teach your child to read and write, from baby to age seven

by J. Richard Gentry Learn how to activate and accelerate ... learning: the key is to introduce the right activities at the right time. Identify your child's literacy phrase and take the next step to build writing, reading and spelling.

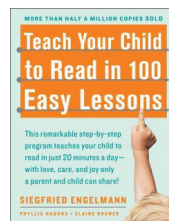

Starting Out Right : A Guide to Promoting Children's Reading Success

by M. Susan Burns
Find out how to help youngsters build word recognition, avoid comprehension problems, and more--with checklists of specific accomplishments expected for very young children, K, 1st, 2nd, and 3rd grade. 55 activities included.

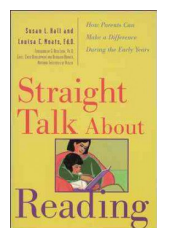

How to get your child to love reading : A Parents Guide

by Esmé Raji Codell
Offers advice and guidelines on how to expand a child's world through books and reading, introducing three thousand teacher-recommended book titles, craft ideas, projects, recipes, and reading club tips.

Teach your child to read in 100 easy lessons

by Siegfried Engelmann
A complete, step-by-step program that shows parents simply and clearly how to teach their children to read in twenty minutes a day.

Straight talk about reading : how parents can make a difference during the early years

by Susan L. Hall
Straight Talk About Reading will instantly help any parent lay a solid foundation for their child's formative educational years.

Newburgh Free Library

124 Grand Street
Newburgh, New York 12550-4692 | (845)563-3600
www.newburghlibrary.org