 A graphic for the 'Beginning Genealogy' event. It features a blue background with a collage of genealogy-related images: a circular portrait of a woman labeled 'DearMYRTLE', a circular portrait of a man labeled 'Cousin Russ', a vintage census document titled 'SCHEDULE No. 1 - POPULATION', a black and white photo of a woman, and a color photo of a small house. The text 'Beginning Genealogy' is written in large, bold, blue letters across the center.	 A graphic for the 'GenLaw Study Group'. It features a white background with a green and blue geometric design on the right. On the left is a book cover for 'Genealogy and the Law: A Guide to Legal Sources for the Family Historian' by Kay Haviland Freilich & William B. Freilich. The text 'GenLaw Study Group' is in large blue letters, with 'A DearMYRTLE Hangout on Air' in smaller text below it.

"The Written Conclusion" Study Group focuses on Chapter 7 of the same title in Mastering Genealogical Proof in one hour sessions.	Myrt's AmbushCAM: Will be interviewing participants at RootsTech 2015
 A detailed black and white illustration of a woman wearing a tall top hat and a veil, holding a quill pen in her right hand. She is looking slightly to the side with a gentle expression.
