Mary, Queen of Scots
by Antonia Fraser

Mary Stuart was born with a claim to 2 thrones and her marriage to the French dauphin promised a third crown. Her passionate nature lead her into a deadly game of power and intrigue that she would lose to her powerful cousin and rival Queen Elizabeth I. Fascinating!

Churchill: Walking with Destiny by Andrew Roberts

A first in biographies of Churchill! The author had access to War Cabinet transcripts, diaries and letters from contemporaries and access to George VI's diaries.

The Apprentice: My Life in the Kitchen
by Jacques Pepin

The exciting life of chef Jacques Pepin from his childhood in France during WWII to becoming one of America's most celebrated chefs.

My American Dream by Lidia Matticchio Bastianich

When the Communists invaded her home in Istria, Lidia and her family waited 2 years in a refugee camp to enter the US. A story of love, faith and determination!

Nicholas and Alexandra by Robert Massie

The tragic story of Czar Nicholas II and his family as revolution loomed in Russia.

Mistress of the Monarchy by Alison Weir

Mistress of John of Gaunt and later his wife, their descendants changed the course of British history. A remarkable woman!
