

Frank Sinatra: Unlikely Civil Rights Champion

With Professor Gil Gigliotti

Throughout his life, Frank Sinatra was an ardent supporter of civil rights. He insisted on having integrated backing orchestras, refused to perform at venues that barred black audience members, and gave generously to civil rights causes and leaders, including Martin Luther King Jr.

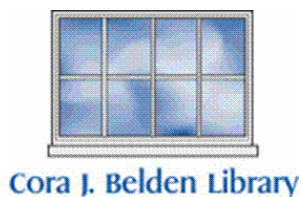

Come learn how Frank Sinatra used his super star power to help desegregate the music industry and support other civil rights causes with Sinatra expert Professor Gil Gigliotti from Central Connecticut State University.

Tuesday
February 11
6:30 pm

Registration requested. Please call 860-258-7623 to sign up.

Sponsored by the Friends of the Library

Cora J. Belden Library

33 Church St.
Rocky Hill, CT 06067 | 860-258-7621
www.rockyhillct.gov/library