

New Young Adult eAudiobooks

Burn

by Patrick Ness

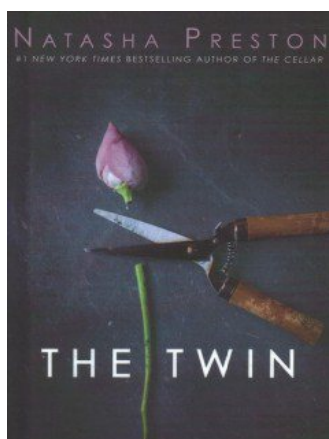

Sarah and her father, outcasts in their town, are forced to hire a dragon to work their farm, something only the poorest ever have to resort to. The dragon, Kazimir, supposedly doesn't have a soul but seems intent on keeping Sarah safe. This dragon has arrived at the farm with a prophecy on his mind.

The Midnight Lie

by Marie Rutkoski

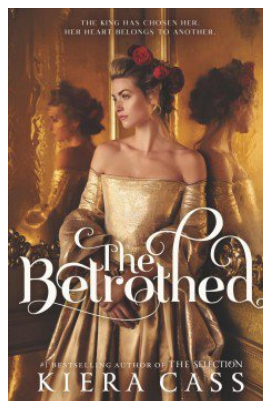

Coming of age in a magical alternate world overshadowed by crime, harsh rules and economic inequality, Nirrim falls in love with a rakish traveler who encourages her to surrender her life to explore her capacity for magic.

The Twin

by Natasha Preston

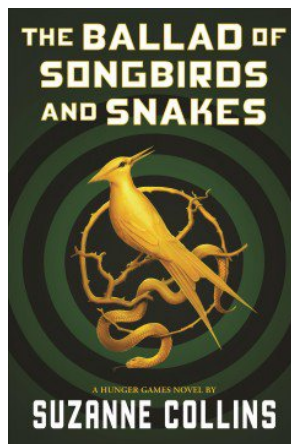

After sixteen-year-old Ivy's twin sister, Iris, moves in with her and their father, Ivy learns that Iris is trying to push her out of her own life-and may be responsible for their mother's death.

The Betrothed

by Kiera Cass

Declared the unexpected love of a commitment-resistant young prince, a nobleman's daughter is rapidly disillusioned by the outsized expectations of royal life before meeting a stranger with the mysterious power to see into her heart.

Ballad of Songbirds and Snakes

by Suzanne Collins

At the tenth annual Hunger Games, eighteen-year-old Coriolanus Snow is preparing for a shot at glory as a mentor in the Games. The once-mighty house of Snow has fallen on the chance that Coriolanus will be able to outcharm and outwit his fellow students to win.