

MARCH-JUNE | IN REVIEW

KEEPING COMMUNITIES TOGETHER, EVEN WHEN WE ARE APART.

HIGHLIGHTS	PARTNERSHIPS
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Implemented remote access so libraries could contact patrons and create library cardsProvided HR advice, policy outlines, and guides on accessing stimulus fundsWeekly meetings to unify library system responseContinuing to help libraries access PPP loans	Cornell Cooperative Extension Census Complete Count Committees Division of Human Rights RCLS Coalition for Library Workers of Color

Building Closed:
March 16, 2020

$6,600 in grant funding
used to purchase census materials to support library efforts

Building Reopened:
June 8, 2020

Bookmarks
Flyers
Activity Books

» made available to libraries in English and Spanish

244,989

E-books borrowed system wide
198,628 in 2019

12,586

new eLibrary users system wide
6,102 in 2019

219

digital books purchased to support early literacy

21

online continuing education opportunities for library staff

126

views of Michael McCreary community author presentation

5,462

views of Dia, Children's Day videos