Mr. Nobody
by Catherine Steadman

Treating a man found on the beach with no memory of his identity, a neuropsychologist who would hide her own past is confronted by her patient's mysterious knowledge of her secrets.

The Dilemma
by B. A. Paris

Organizing a lavish birthday party after decades of hardship, a woman hiding a secret about a daughter who cannot attend is forced to confront a devastating truth when her husband arranges a surprise.

Such a Fun Age
by Kiley Reid

A story about race and privilege is centered around a young black babysitter, her well-intentioned employer and a surprising connection that threatens to undo them both.

The Dutch House by Ann Patchett

A richly moving story that explores the indelible bond between two siblings, the house of their childhood, and a past that will not let them go.

Walking the Bible
by Bruce Feiler

The author recounts his ten-thousand-mile journey across the Middle East in search of the roots of the Bible to discover whether it was an abstraction or a living, breathing entity.

This Just Speaks to Me
by Hoda Kotb

Hoda shares 365 quotes and stories and writes about the people and moments that have enriched her life, discussing everything from motherhood and friendship to love and loss.
