SAN LEANDRO HISTORY MUSEUM & FAMILY LITERACY

First Saturdays - "McFarland USA" Film Screening

April 2, 2022, 11:30 AM - 4:00 PM

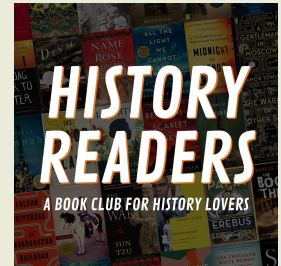

@San Leandro History Museum (320 W. Estudillo Ave)

Based on a true story, track coach Jim White is a newcomer to a predominantly Latino high-school in California's Central Valley. Coach White and his new students find that they have much to learn about one another, but things begin to change when White realizes the boys' exceptional running ability. More than just physical prowess drives the teens to succeed; their strong family ties, incredible work ethic and commitment to their team all play a factor in forging these novice runners into champions. (2015, PG, 2:09) Free Admission - First Come, First Served .

History Readers Book Club via Zoom

April 14, 2022, 6:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Join museum staff for a fun and casual book discussion. There is no required book or reading and no commitment. Each month staff and attendees share the historical book(s) they are reading. It is a great way to discuss books, learn about history and go away with new books for your to-read list. Register Here

COMING SOON: Words In The Wild Thursday, May 19

6:15 pm - 7:45 pm

Family Literacy Workshop and Craft Program for caregivers and parents of children from 3rd to 8th grades./ Ages 10-14.

Summer is a great time to read for fun, and you can learn how to support your children as they grow into skillful readers. Learn research-based strategies to support literacy skills at home – discover realistic, joyful, accessible activities that work with your busy life, and foster a love of reading and writing in your children. While adults attend the workshop, school-age children can attend a simultaneous craft program. This event includes dinner and a free children's book. This event is free and registration required at 510-577-3971.
