

Politics and Government

July 2021

Aftershocks : pandemic politics and the end of the old international order

by Colin H. Kahl

Two of America's leading national security experts offer the most definitive account of the global impact of COVID-19 and the political shock waves for the world order in the 21st Century.

How to survive America

by D. L. Hughley

The well-known comic satirically examines how racism predisposes Blacks and minorities to safety and health risks, including a lack of access to medical care, healthy food and clean air and water.

Hell & High Water : Joe Biden's Moment and America's Existential Election

by John Heilemann

A cinematic, page-turning account of Joe Biden's triumph over Donald Trump in a presidential election unlike any in American history.

We need new stories : the myths that subvert freedom

by Nesrine Malik

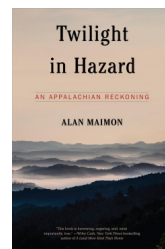

A rigorous examination of six political myths used to deflect and discredit demands for social justice.

Know your rights : and claim them

by Amnesty International, Angelina Jolie and Geraldine Van Bueren

This book details the protections and rights promised to children by the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child and how to defend them.

Twilight in Hazard : an Appalachian reckoning

by Alan Maimon

A Pulitzer Prize finalist gives us a profound understanding of the Central Appalachia region that paints a portrait of a people staring down some of the most destructive forces at work in America today.

Watergate : A New History

by Garrett M. Graff

This book explores the full scope of the scandal through the politicians, investigators, journalists, and informants who made it the most influential political event of our modern era.

Righting Canada's Wrongs : The LGBT Purge and the fight for equal rights in Canada

by Ken Setterington

In this visual book, the author presents the struggle for LGBTQ+ rights using photographs, first-person accounts and excerpts from archival documents.

Landslide : The Final Days of the Trump White House

by Michael Wolff

The story of Trump's tumultuous last months in office, based on Wolff's extraordinary access to White House aides and to the former president himself.

Anti-Semitism and the MS St. Louis : Canada's anti-Semitic immigration policies in the twentieth century

by Rona Arato

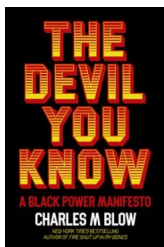

Three years after the war ended and after the horrors of the Holocaust were universally known, Canada finally changed immigration policies and began to accept Jews equally with other immigrants. In 1938, Prime Minister Justin Trudeau made an official apology to the Jewish community.

JFK : Coming of Age in the American Century, 1917-1956

by Fredrik Logevall

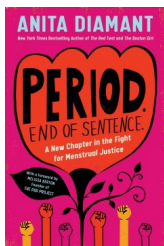

A Pulitzer Prize-winning historian takes us as close as we have ever been to the real John F. Kennedy in a biography of the elusive 35th president.

The devil you know : a Black power manifesto

by Charles M. Blow

The best-selling author presents a rallying call to action that challenges popular myths about race and urges Black Americans to unite against white supremacy.

Period. End of Sentence. : A New Chapter in the Fight for Menstrual Justice

by Anita Diamant

Continuing the revolutionary spirit and building on the momentum of the acclaimed documentary, this book outlines the challenges facing those who menstruate worldwide and the solutions championed by a new generation of body positive activists, innovators and public figures.

Kamala's way : an American life

by Dan Morain

A biography of the first Black woman to stand for Vice President charts how the daughter of two immigrants in segregated California became one of America's most effective power players.

Sisters in hate : American women on the front lines of white nationalism

by Seyward Darby

The author presents a revelatory portrait of white nationalism that traces the lives of three present-day women supporters whose respective experiences with the far right shaped their radicalization.

Nightmare scenario : inside the Trump administration's response to the pandemic that changed history

by Yasmeen Abutaleb

This book looks at the Trump administration's response to the pandemic.

On the house : a Washington memoir

by John Boehner

The former Speaker of the House shares candid tales from Washington, D.C.'s halls of power, offering insight into America's Republican Party and the leadership successes and failures of Presidents from the past half century.

Red line : the unraveling of Syria and America's race to destroy the most dangerous arsenal in the world

by Joby Warrick

The two-time Pulitzer Prize-winning author documents the 2012 civil war bombing of Ghouta, America's effort to keep Syrian chemical weapons out of terrorist hands and Russia's long-term plot to support the presidency of Bashar al-Assad.