

JUNIOR REVIEWERS

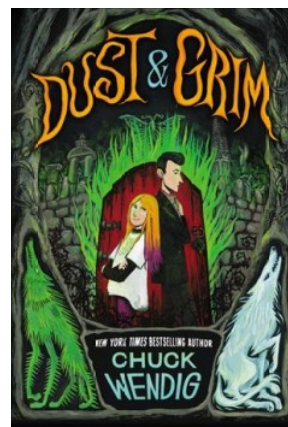

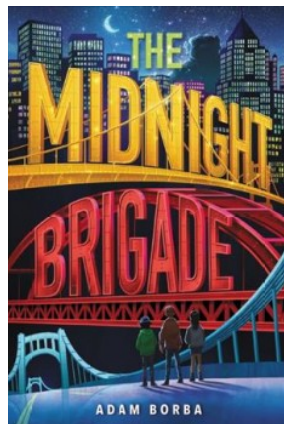

Twelve-year-old Jolene sets out on a journey across the treacherous Arizona desert to rescue a young pilot stranded after a plane crash in this gripping story of survival, friendship, and rescue.

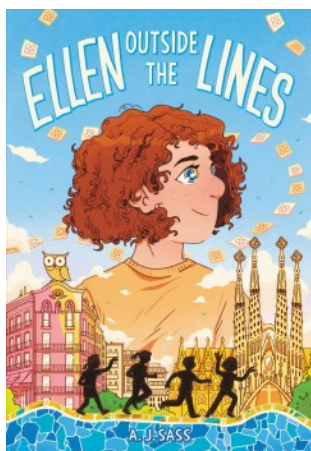

Twelve-year-old Amira and her little brother, Hamza have a role to play in an ancient prophecy. Together they must journey to a mystical land, battle a great evil, and end a civil war or they might have to say goodbye to life as they know it, forever.

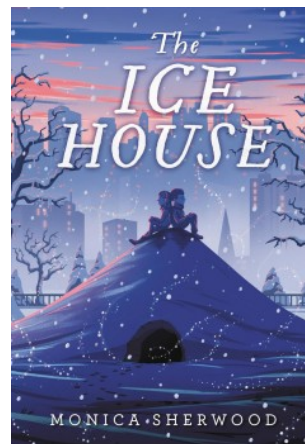

When a flyer about a mysterious monster-seeking group catches his eye, Carl begins an adventure that leads him to find an incredible discovery under one of his city's magnificent bridges.

When she discovers her inheritance is running a monster mortuary with Dustin, the older brother she's never met, 13-year-old Molly must get along with him for five minutes if she wants to stop a rogue devourer of magic.

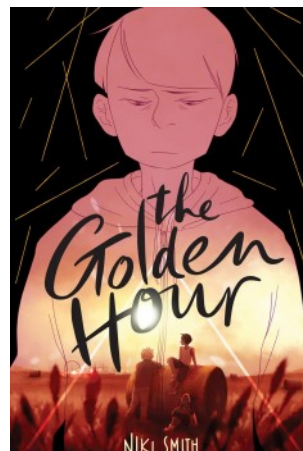

Thirteen-year-old Ellen is autistic and feels most comfortable when her life is well planned out. But when her one-and-only best friend Laurel starts making more friends and cancelling weekend plans, Ellen hopes a school trip to Barcelona will be the perfect place to get their friendship back on track.

A winter freeze has left Louisa snowed into her apartment building for months with her parents coping with extreme stress and Luke coping with his dad's accident. When the two build a massive snow fort in their yard they discover it opens up an otherworldly window to what could lie ahead.

Struggling with anxiety after witnessing a harrowing instance of gun violence, Manuel copes through photography. His days are a lonely, latchkey monotony until he's teamed with his classmates, Sebastian and Caysha, for a group project.

GRAPHIC NOVEL