YA Programs

November 2021

All Young Adult Programs are intended for teens in grades 6-12 only!

Kits

Kits contain the materials and instructions needed. Some basic supplies may be needed.

Craft Kit: Book Art Turkey pick up starts Wednesday, November 10

Upcycle a discarded book into an adorable turkey to display for Thanksgiving.

Zine Starter Kit pick up starts Monday, November 22

Learn to create your own zine (pronounced "zeen") with this starter kit.

Crafternoon

Thursday, November 18, 3:00 pm

Craft supplies will be made available to have some fun. Previous Craft Kits may be available. While supplies last.

Community Service

Letters to Veterans

Thursday, November 4, 7:00 pm

We will write encouraging messages to veterans, and them out just in time for Veterans Day! Also, we will need volunteers to clip and sort coupons that will be sent to military families on bases in the United States and abroad.

Teen Advisory Group

Tuesday, November 16, 3:00 pm

Help plan library programs, earn community service, and meet new people.

For more volunteer opportunities visit:

Reading

Teen Book Club

Tuesday, November 30, 3:00 pm

Pans Labyrinth by Benicio del Toro

Set in post-civil war Spain, a young girl flees the home of her cruel step-father into an underground fantasy world where she encounters a strange creature and a terrifying battle between good and evil.

Films & Games

Teen Trivia: Games

November 1-November 30

How well do you remember the rules to board games like uno? As well as you remember which video game Mario is from?

Movie Discussion: Clue

Tuesday, November 9, 3:00 pm

Bring out your inner movie critic, and watch a classic movie at the library! Discussion to follow.

Table Top Games

Friday, November 19, 3:00 pm

Stop in the Teen Department to have some fun and play some games.
