Operation Sisterhood

by Olugbemisola Rhuday-Perkovich Moving in with her Mum's boyfriend in Harlem, Bo isn't sure there's room for her in their crowded, yet happy, home, in this heartwarming novel about the difficulties of change, the loyalty of sisters and love of family.

Northwind

by Gary Paulsen
Forced to take to the water after a deadly plague wipes out his fishing village, Leif connects to the heartbeat of the ocean and the pulse of the landscape as he discovers his truest self.

Each of Us A Universe

by Jeanne Zulick Ferruolo
On the run from her mom's cancer, her father's imprisonment and people who don't "get" her, Cal Scott meets Rosine, a girl just like her, and together they set out to do the impossible—summit a mountain said to have magic at its peak.

The Aquanaut

by Dan Santat
Ever since her father was lost at sea, Sophia has been moping around Aqualand, a marine theme park. But Sophia's world is turned upside-down when an "aquanaut" breaks into the park's research lab. To her amazement, Sophia discovers that the aquanaut is not what it seems like.

The School for Whatnots

by Margaret Peterson Haddix
No matter what anyone tells you, I'm real. That's what the note says that Max finds under his keyboard. He knows that his best friend, Josie, wrote it. He'd know her handwriting anywhere. But why she wrote it—and what it means—remains a mystery.

New from Here

by Kelly Yang
When the coronavirus hits Hong Kong, Knox Wei-Evans's mom makes the last-minute decision to move him and his siblings back to California, where they think they will be safe. Suddenly, Knox has two days to prepare for an international move—and for leaving his dad, who has to stay for work.

Pilar Ramirez and the Escape from Zafa

by Julian Randall

While doing research for her documentary about her cousin Natasha—who disappeared in the Dominican Republic fifty years ago during the Trujillato—twelve-year-old Pilar Violeta Ramirez is transported to Zafa, an island where Dominican myths and legends come to life and where her cousin is being held captive in a sinister magical prison, and Pilar must defeat the Dominican bogeyman if she hopes to free Natasha and return home to Chicago.

Wingbearer

by Marjorie M. Liu

Zuli is extraordinary—she just doesn't realize it yet. Raised by mystical bird spirits in the branches of the Great Tree, she's never ventured beyond this safe haven. She's never had to. Until now. When a sinister force threatens the life-giving magic of the tree, Zuli, along with her guardian owl, Frowly, must get to the root of it.

Witchlings

by Claribel A. Ortega

Witches are placed into covens when they turn 12 years old and come into their full powers. But the main character, Seven, ends up being placed into the worst coven and everything starts to go wrong from there.

Those Kids from Fawn Creek

by Erin Entrada Kelly

There are only 12 kids in Fawn Creek middle school until Orchid Mason arrives and changes everything. This is a story about friendship, family, deception, and being true to yourself and your dreams.

Moonwalking

by Zetta Elliott

In 1980s Brooklyn, new student JJ Pankowski, an autistic, punk-rock-lover, befriends Pie Velez, an Afro-Latinx math geek and graffiti artist

Jennifer Chan Is Not Alone

by Tae Keller

Thanks to her best friend, Reagan, Mallory Moss knows the rules of middle school. The most important one? You have to fit in to survive. But then Jennifer Chan moves in across the street, and that rule doesn't seem to apply. She believes in aliens—and she thinks she can find them. Then Jennifer goes missing. Using clues from Jennifer's journals, Mallory goes searching.
