

Meet

Your Local Authors, Illustrators & Poets

Reva Nelson

Reva has been an actress, teacher-librarian, a professional speaker and facilitator for over 20 years. She now lives in Cobourg, writes columns and leads workshops. Reach her at revanelson77@gmail.com

Donna Wootton

Donna is an author and retired teacher. Her poetry was recently published in Musings and The Divinity of Blue. You can reach Donna at www.dmwootton.com

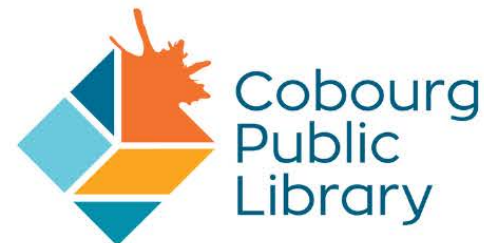

H. Duxbury

h.duxbury has been writing almost as long as she has been reading. She hopes to create connections with her writing, and to offer a little bit of beauty in the chaos for others. You can find her on Instagram @hduxburypoetry or at www.hduxburypoetry.com

Tim Paulsen

Tim has lived in Toronto, Northern Indiana and Chicago. This is his first fiction novel and the first of a trilogy involving the Toronto Police Force and others. You can learn more by visiting www.timpaulsen.com

presents

Think Read LOCAL LOCAL

James Ronson

James is a lifelong traveller, educator and writer. His third novel, Emperors and Hockey Ghosts (due out this fall) centres on the greatest trade in National Hockey League history in the pre-Gretzky era. James Ronson lives in Port Hope, Ontario.

Jan Fluke & Deb Kekewich

Retired teachers, Jan and Deb, knew the value of rhyming verse in the learning to read process. They write with that in mind, adding parent/teacher activities to their books, based on the Ontario Curriculum. You can learn more about them at thestorysnuggery.com

Janet Stobie

A writer, inspirational speaker and ordained minister, Janet spent nineteen years in pastoral ministry enjoying children, teens and adults. Her books are available from Amazon and her website www.janetstobie.com

Linda Hutsell-Manning

Linda has eleven published children's books and plays. She has taught Community College creative writing and given countless school/library workshops across Canada. You can learn more about Linda to www.lindahutsellmanning.ca

Jennifer Tuach

Jennifer is one of the co-authors of "The Mom Babes Vol. 2" and the Mom of three boys. You can connect with her on Instagram @JenniferLeahXO

Mandy Robinson

Mandy is a distinguished Toast Master, the Town Crier of Cobourg and inspirational poet. You can learn more about her by connecting on Facebook.

Shane Joseph

She is a Canadian novelist, blogger, reviewer, short story writer and, publisher. For details on his work, visit his website at www.shanejoseph.com

Robby Jewers

Robby grew up in Cobourg and recently moved back after suffering cardiac arrest that left him dead for 20 minutes. His brain did not get enough oxygen resulting in an anoxic brain injury. Doctors never thought he would walk or talk again. Robby channelled his creativity into the written word.

Terry Davies

Recently retired from a lengthy Marketing career in Toronto, Terry moved to Cobourg with his wife of 47 years in 2019. The Weezes are the authors first fully published work. These books have been 40 years in the making, originating from a four lined poem; Terry sketched in a journal for his children at the time. Terry has many creative ventures to occupy his time, but plans to continue the Weezes fun filled journey for children. You can learn more by visiting www.theweezes.com