

The background of the top section is a warm, autumn-themed photograph. It features a light-colored wooden surface. In the upper left, a white plate holds several dried, yellow-orange leaves. Scattered across the surface are more individual leaves of similar color. A red book with a textured cover is positioned diagonally on the right side. A small, brown pinecone and a few more leaves are resting on the book. The title 'Autumn Book Swap' is overlaid in a large, dark brown, cursive-style font.
