MY HEART IS A CHAINSAW

by Stephen Graham Jones

Jade Daniels, an angry, half-Indian outcast, with a passion for 1980s slasher films, is convinced a massacre is brewing when a teenager is found dead in her small Idaho town. The reader is pulled into her dark mind when blood actually starts to spill into the waters of Indian lake.

HIDE: A NOVEL

by Kiersten White

Fourteen contestants, including Mack, a homeless shelter resident who lost everything, embark on a seven-day competition and the chance to win $50,000 if they can successfully play hide and seek in an abandoned amusement park without being found and eliminated.

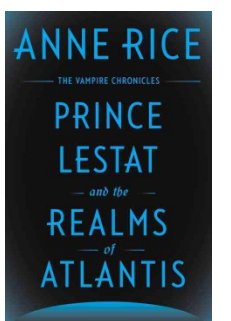

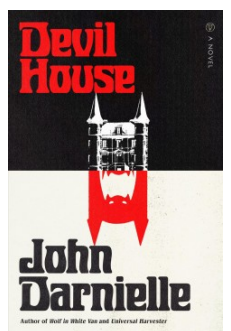

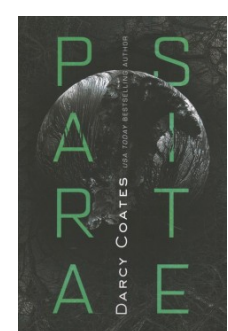

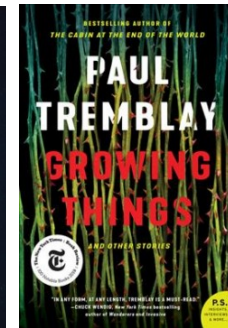

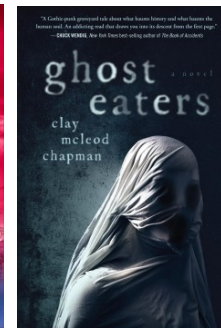

THE HACIENDA

by Isabel Canas

In 1820's Mexico, poverty-stricken Beatriz, daughter of an influential but recently executed general, chooses security over love by eagerly accepting the proposal of a wealthy landowner. But when they arrive at his estate in the country, she senses a hostile, feral feeling from the hacienda that is now her home. Great Gothic suspense reminiscent of Charlotte Bronte's Jane Eyre & Carol Goodman's The Widow's House.
