

TRUE CRIME 2023

American Demon

by Daniel Stashower
Eliot Ness investigates the Cleveland Torso Murderer, who left thirteen bodies scattered across the city in the 1930s in a historical true crime story from the biographer, historian and award-winning author of The Hour of Peril.

Born to be Hanged

by Keith Thomson
This book charts a legendary two-year expedition by 300 pirates in the year 1860 to wreak havoc on the Pacific coastline, raiding cities, mines and merchant ships as well as their sensational trial back in England.

Forensic Files Now

by Rebecca Reisner
In this book author Rebecca Reisner shares her own gripping retellings of 40 favorite cases profiled on her hit TV show along with fascinating updates adapted from her popular blog, ForensicFilesNow.com, and a foreword by show creator Paul Dowling.

Hell's Half-Acre

by Susan Jonas
Describes the true-crime story around the 1873 discovery of the remains of numerous bodies beneath an apple orchard, thought to be the work of the Benders, America's first serial killer family who seemed to be respectable Kansas homesteaders.

I Know Who You Are

by Barbara Rae-Venter
A retiree researching her family history explains how she used her knowledge of DNA data to uncover the culprit of the Golden State Killer crime spree, a cold case that baffled law enforcement for decades.

American Mother

by Gregg Olsen
An account of the crimes of Stella Nickell and her look-alike daughter describes how Nickell -- with the possible help of her daughter -- killed her husband in order to collect on an insurance policy.

Cults

by Max Cutler
The founder of a popular podcast studio and a national best-seller join forces to describe what goes on inside the minds of cult leaders and also the mindset of their followers, from Manson to Applewhite and Koresh to Jim Jones.

The Fourth Man

by Robert Baer
In this real-life thriller, a best-selling author and former CIA officer tells the never-before-told story of the hunt for a KGB spy in the top ranks of the CIA -- who could have been the most damaging spy in history.

Helltown

by Casey Sherman
In the winter of 1969, the bodies of four young women were discovered in a cemetery near the tip of Cape Cod. The killer embarked on a daring cat-and-mouse game with investigators, who were desperate to put an end to the killing season.

Lust Killer

by Ann Rule
When young women begin mysteriously disappearing in Oregon, Police Lieutenant James Stovall leads a relentless search for a killer. With little evidence available, and the public screaming for answers, he must find a remorseless, brutal killer whose identity will shock them all.

TRUE CRIME 2023

The Other Dr. Gilmer

by Benjamin Gilmer

A rural physician examines the case of his predecessor who strangled their father, and, discovering he is plagued by mental illness, enlists a journalist to get him the help he needs, pitting them against a prison system that cares little about mental health.

Sandy Hook

by Elizabeth Williamson

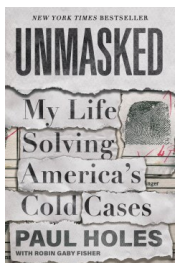

Drawing on hours of interviews and exclusive sources and access, a journalist documents Sandy Hook and its aftermath, where a conspiracy theorists have forced the victims and survivors to defend that an event even occurred.

Tell Me Everything

by Erika Krouse

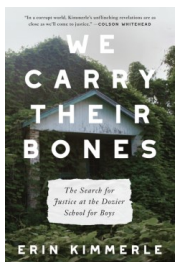

In this part memoir, part literary true crime, the author becomes consumed by a sexual assault investigation that grows into a national scandal and a historic civil rights case, and, when everything around her implodes, she must figure out how to win the case without losing herself.

Unmasked

by Paul Holes

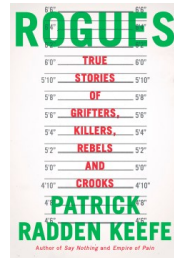

An icon in the true crime world, the cold case investigator who finally caught the Golden State Killer provides an insider account of some the most notorious cases in contemporary history and opens up to the most intimate scenes of his life.

We Carry Their Bones

by Erin H. Kimmerle

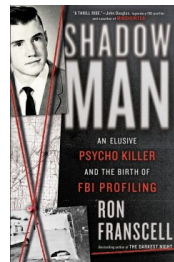

After the Arthur G. Dozier Boys School was shut down in 2011 due to reports of cruelty, abuse and mysterious deaths, a leading forensic anthropologist, attempting to reunite lost boys with their families, finds herself threatened by those who wanted to keep the truth buried forever.

Rogues

by Patrick Radden Keefe

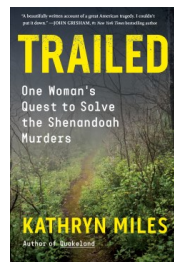

The prize-winning, best-selling author presents twelve of his most celebrated articles from The New Yorker that form a deeply human portrait of criminals and rascals, as well as those who stand up against them.

ShadowMan

by Ron Franscell

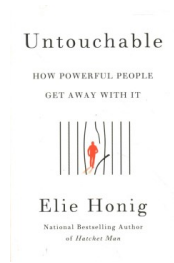

This edge-of-your-seat, real-life thriller tells the true story of the first time in history the FBI created a psychological profile to catch a serial killer -- a profile that fit the killer to a T when he was finally caught.

Trailed

by Kathryn Miles

On the 20th anniversary of the Shenandoah Murders, a journalist looks into the lives of Lollie Winans and Julie Williams, who were killed while backpacking in the park, and reveals cover-ups and incompetence that possibly led to the apprehension of the wrong suspect.

Untouchable

by Elie Honig

A CNN senior legal analyst and nationally best-selling author exposes how the rich and powerful use our criminal justice system to their own benefit by manipulating institutions and practices to build empires of corruption and get away with misdeeds ordinary people would be imprisoned for.

When the Moon Turns to Blood

by Leah Sottile

This disturbing account of murder, paranoia and disinformation explores modern-day survivalism and end-times extremism through the story of Lori Vallow and her grave digger-turned-doomsday novelist who were responsible for unspeakable crimes.

Sherwood Public Library

22560 SW Pine St

Sherwood, Oregon 97140 | 503-625-6688

www.sherwoodoregon.gov/library