invites you to meet with*

Girl Scouts of Suffolk County

MAY 17, 2023

12 PM - 3 PM

Girl Scouts of Suffolk County will be available here at the library to discuss their various programs.

"Maybe you dream of exploring space, running your own business, or advocating for climate justice. You need somewhere to start. From writing your first code to hiking your first national park, we will help you build skills and discover talents you never knew you had."
