

Summer Reading Optional Activities:

Choose one of the following activities to complete about a book you've read this summer. Then bring your completed activity to Ms. Bailey when you arrive back at school in September, and you'll get a ticket for our Summer Reading Prize Draw.

- *Draw a map of the setting.
- *Write a short story about what the character(s) would be doing one year later.
- *Imagine you could interview the protagonist. What three questions would you ask?
- *Redesign the cover.
- *Write a letter to the author or illustrator.
- *Write or film a short book review. Remember to include a few sentences describing the book as well as a few sentences about why you liked it—or didn't.

Take it to the next level...

- *Choose two people or characters from two different books who you think would be great friends. Why?
- *Choose one book location or setting to live in for a week—it can be fiction or nonfiction. Which location would you choose and why?
- *Take a photo of the cover of each book you read. Create a photo collage or animated trailer. (Free programs like Animoto might be a fun choice.)
- *Recommend a book to a friend or family member. Which title did you choose and why did you recommend it?
