

TEEN SUMMER READING 2023

Teen Summer Reading Kicks off June 1st from 4 to 6 pm.

One free ice cream from the Sea Turtle Ice Cream truck during the event for everyone who registers for Summer Reading! You will receive your teen bag with a lanyard at registration and your Teen book log. Only a paper book log is available this summer due to the library's catalog software migration.

Read 10 books and turn in your book log to be entered into the drawing for prizes: free bowling game at Cardinal Lanes, $5 gift cards to local coffee shops and a drawing for a 1/2 hour flight over Newton from Johnson Aviation.

Deadline to turn in your book log is July 28th.

Special events for teens. Registration opens June 1st at the Kickoff Event from 4 to 6 pm. All events are for grades 5-12, grade just completed

June 5th 5 pm

Marble art journal

Join local artist Jennah Hughes, who will lead us in making marble art paper and assembling a journal. Must be preregistered, registration opens at our kickoff on June 1st.

June 14th 1 to 3 pm

Cyanotype Art Workshop with Naomi Friend

Artist Naomi Friend will show us how to capture an image with sun exposure, in this hands-on workshop. You must be preregistered, registration opens at our kickoff on June 1

June 15th 4 to 6 pm

Teen Board Game Club

Join us in the teen area for board game fun. Led by Library staffperson Bill Bennett, an avid board game player. Learn how to play games like Zooloretto and Carcassonne.

June 28th 4 to 6 pm

Goache painting class

Local artist Danna Fruetel will teach us basics of goache painting is a matte, opaque watercolor technique. Must be preregistered.

July 12th 4 to 6 pm

Morgan Ostrander, Intro to Intaglio Printing

Local artist Morgan Ostrander will introduce teens to Intaglio Printmaking. Must be preregistered.

Continued on other side