The Everlasting Meal Cookbook: Leftovers A-Z
By Tamar Adler

Food waste is a serious issue today. Most of us look around the kitchen and struggle to use up everything we buy, and then when it comes to leftovers we're stuck.

Here, Adler offers more than 1,500 easy and creative ideas to use up nearly every kind of leftover—and helpfully explains how long each recipe takes. Organized alphabetically and filled with foods across the spectrum—from applesauce to truffles and potato chip crumbs to cabbage—this comprehensive guide makes it easy to flip through so you can find a use for all types of unused food. Sensible, frugal, and consistently delicious, the recipes in An Everlasting Meal Cookbook allow you to prepare meals with economy and grace, making this a vital resource that every home cook needs.

Fiction Book Spotlight

Saturday Night at the Lakeside Supper Club
By J. Ryan Stradal

In the aftermath of a devastating tragedy, Ned and Mariel lose almost everything they hold dear, and the hard-won victories of each family hang in the balance. With their dreams dashed, can one fractured family find a way to rebuild despite their losses, and will the Lakeside Supper Club be their salvation?

In this colorful, vanishing world of relish trays and brandy Old Fashioneds, J. Ryan Stradal has once again given us a story full of his signature honest, lovable yet fallible Midwestern characters as they grapple with love, loss, and marriage; what we hold onto and what we leave behind; and what our legacy will be when we are gone.

Get to know our Board of Trustees Members

Each month we'll ask a Board member these five questions to get to know them better.

Bill Ranauro, Board Member

1. What does your family look like?

Well, I think just about everybody in Walpole knows my wife, Lisa. She's active with the Fall Mountain Endowment Association and loves going to Fit Body Boot Camp most mornings. My two adult children, Daniel and Emily, are happily married and live on the NH Seacoast, Daniel in Portsmouth and Emily in Dover. Daniel works for a government Long Term insurance company and Emily is a teacher at the UNH Child Care Center. Lisa and I are SO proud of our kids! We love them so much.

2. What's the last book you read?

I could be a wise guy and say "my own," but I won't! I usually have at least two things going at once, but I loved David Grann's The Wager. A great story told by a great writer.

3. What 3 things would you bring to a deserted island?

A VERY large pepperoni pizza. A comfortable pair of shoes. The Collected Works of Shakespeare

4. If you could travel anywhere, where would you go?

I've been to Italy many times and I want to continue traveling there. Florence is my favorite city, but I love the entire country.

5. What was your first job?

In 1970, I was employed as a playground counselor at the age of fourteen in my hometown of Southborough, Massachusetts. I was paid $20.00 per week, $100.00 for the summer—big bucks!
