by JOHN K. BULLARD

BOOK TALK & BOOK SIGNING

Monday, August 7 @ 6:00 pm

John K. Bullard weaves a tale of a family legacy intertwined with the pitfalls and promise of New Bedford, a storied Massachusetts seaport whose past and future can be found in every small American city struggling to survive and thrive. In this deeply moving and thoughtful memoir, Bullard explores the meaning of public service, greater good, personal responsibility, and the ties that bind people to their hometowns.

Presently, John Bullard serves as chair of the New Bedford Ocean Cluster and the Westport Community Resilience Committee and on the boards of the Buzzards Bay Coalition and the Westport Planning Board. Preservationist, planner, and politician, John remains a leader in movements such as promoting wind and alternative powers and protecting the ocean against pollution.
