Fiber Arts Drop-In Group

FOR TEENS AND ADULTS!

Join us for the second installment in a new series! The Fiber Arts Drop-In Group is an intergenerational no-stakes creative endeavor for teens and adults! During this first session, several library staff members will teach the basics of various fiber arts including embroidery, cross-stitch, knitting, and crocheting. Supplies to try out each of these techniques will be provided. In the following sessions, bring back something you started on in this first session, or another project you're working on and continue crafting with other Marshfield textile makers!
