

Iceberg

by Jennifer A. Nielsen

JF Nielsen

Stowaway and aspiring journalist Hazel Rothbury secretly explores the Titanic with the help of a porter and a sweet first-class passenger until disaster strikes, forcing Hazel to fight to save her friends and herself.

Three Strike Summer

by Skyler Schremp

JF Schremp

Dust Bowl refugee Gloria Mae Willard finds herself uprooted and working on a California peach orchard, where she tries to join the secret, all-boys baseball team.

Dog Star

by Megan Shepherd

JF Shepherd

When Nina and Laika, a dog being trained to be a starflyer, meet in Nina's father's lab, they form a close bond and together they must unravel a tangled web of secrets to rocket to the stars.

Dawn Raid

by Pauline Vaeluaga Smith

JF Smith

After the police raid their house, Lenny starts talking about protests and injustices against Pacific Islanders by the government, which inspires the whole family to become involved in the movement.

World in Between

by Kenan Trebinčević

JF Trebinčević

Based on a true refugee story, this moving novel follows Kenan and his family as they make it out of war-torn Bosnia alive, which is only the beginning of their journey.

Code Name Bananas

by David Walliams

JF Walliams

As German bombs rain down on London, 11-year-old Eric and his zookeeper uncle Sid escape with Gertrude the gorilla, but while hiding out at the seaside, they uncover a Nazi plot that changes everything.

Over and Out

by Jenni L. Walsh

JF Walsh

Sophie has spent her life behind the Berlin Wall, guarded by land mines, towers, and attack dogs. A science lover, she dreams of becoming an inventor, but that's unlikely in East Berlin. Sophie soon finds herself spying for the secret police, determined to escape to freedom.

Wild Bird

by Diane Zahler

JF Zahler

Set in 14th-century Norway during a deadly plague, this sweeping adventure follows Rype, an abandoned girl, as she joins a group of strangers on a journey across Europe in order to survive, searching for a brighter future and a place to call home.

Children

Historical Fiction

Travel back in time—adventure so real you'll think you're really there

The County Library

8030 S 1825 W

West Jordan, Utah 84088 | 801.943.4636

thecountylibrary.org

Juvenile Fiction

The Door of No Return

by Kwame Alexander
JF Alexander
When his brother represents Upper Kwanta in a wrestling contest, 11-year-old Kofi finds himself fighting for his life, which sends him on a dangerous journey across land and sea.

Meet Isabel and Nicki

by Julia DeVillers and Jennifer Roy JF American Girl
Isabel and Nicki may be twins, but they're each one of a kind. Isabel loves dancing with her friends, while Nicki prefers skateboarding alone. In December 1999, the girls create a list of challenges to complete before midnight on New Year's Eve.

Peacemaker

by Joseph Bruchac
JF Bruchac
A 12-year-old Iroquois boy rethinks his calling after witnessing the arrival of a mystical figure with a message of peace in this historical novel based on the creation of the Iroquois Confederacy.

Troublemaker

by John Cho
JF Cho
Following the events of the LA Riots, a 12-year-old Korean American boy must come to terms with the racism within and affecting their community while trying to protect his father, a store owner.

Louisa June and the Nazis in the Waves

by L.M. Elliott
JF Elliott
In 1941, after Hitler declares war on the US, unleashing U-boat submarines to attack American ships, Louisa June must help her mother after her father and brother are caught in the crossfire.

The Plot to Kill a Queen

by Deborah Hopkinson
JF Hopkinson
Accidentally uncovering a plot to assassinate Queen Elizabeth I, aspiring playwright Emilia Bassano and her friends, including Will Shakespeare, set out to foil the plans of a disguised murderer on the loose.

The Lucky Ones

by Linda Williams Jackson JF Jackson
In 1967, when his teacher loans him a copy of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, 11-year-old Ellis Earl Brown is amazed to encounter a family worse off than his own and wonders if happy endings only come in books.

In the Tunnel

by Julie Lee JF Lee
When his father is kidnapped by the secret police, Myung-gi blames himself and refuses to leave North Korea without his dad, even if it means joining the army and being sent to the front lines of the Korean War, where his deepest fears await him.

The Windeby Puzzle

by Lois Lowry
JF Lowry
Transporting readers to an Iron Age world, follow Estrild, a female warrior, and Varick, who helps her train in spite of his twisted back, as they fight to survive in a place where differences are not tolerated.

Coming up Cuban

by Sonia Manzano
JF Manzano
Four children from very different backgrounds learn to find a place for themselves in a world forever changed after Fidel Castro's rise to power.

A Sky Full of Song

by Susan Meyer
JF Meyer
Starting a new life on the American frontier after fleeing persecution in the Russian Empire, 11-year-old Shoshana finds herself hiding her Jewish identity in the face of prejudice until her older sister makes her see that their family's difference is their greatest strength.

The Paper Daughters of Chinatown

by Heather B. Moore JF Moore
Sold into servitude by her father, Tai Choi arrives in 1890s San Francisco where she suffers abuse at the hands of her employers while forming a powerful friendship with a woman dedicated to winning the freedom of thousands of immigrant women and girls.