Blackout Poetry for Teens

April 10 - 21

Are you a poet but don't know it? From April 10-21, create your own blackout poetry from materials supplied in the Teen Corner. Blackout poetry is created when words on a page are omitted rather than added. Once poems are completed, we will display them in the Teen Corner. Come try it out and see what you can create! For more information, call 336-703-2940.
