

Sonoma County Women's Voices

by Women's Support Network - RARE R 305.4
SONOMA COUNTY

A feminist newspaper published monthly with the goal to provide a forum for the exploration and formation of feminist issues and to provide information on events, news items and organizations of interest to the women community. At the History & Genealogy Library: 1985-2009 (with gaps).

The personal is historical : the impact of lesbian identity on the Sonoma County women's movement and beyond

by Roy, Emilie E. - RARE R 305.42 ROY

Illuminates the lesbian impact on the women's movement in Sonoma County which was a hotbed for feminist culture and activism from 1970 until the late 1980s.

We The People

by Northern California Gay Media Project, Forestville, CA - RARE R 306.7605 WE

A monthly newspaper "serving Lesbians, Gay Men, Bisexuals & their Friends in the Redwood Empire," 1988-1996. Sonoma County Library holdings at the History & Genealogy Library: October 1991, January 1993.

Where would we be without you: a video history of AIDS activism in Sonoma County

by Stewart Scofield

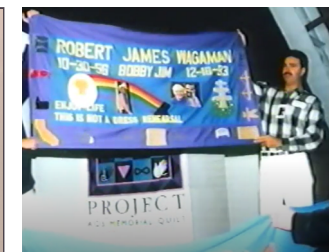

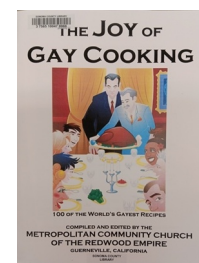

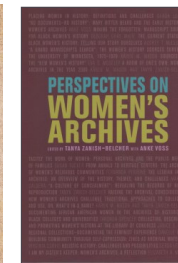

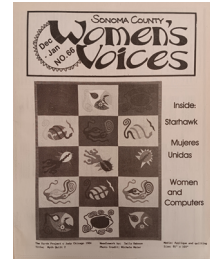

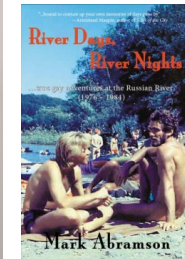

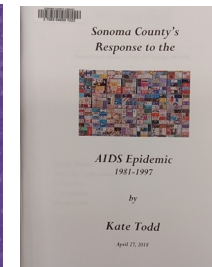

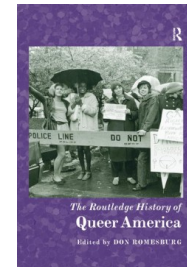

Interviewees: Geri Brooks, Rawn Clark, Rick Dean, Kit Mariah, Paul Menconi, Eric Olson, Michael Onstott, and others.

R DVD 362.1969792 WHE

Electronic access: https://archive.org/details/cstr_vid_000240

Sonoma County, California and Beyond

SONOMA COUNTY LIBRARY

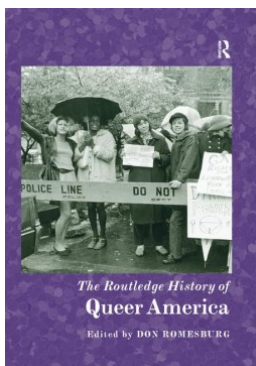

sonomalibrary.org

Brought to you by the Measure Y sales tax

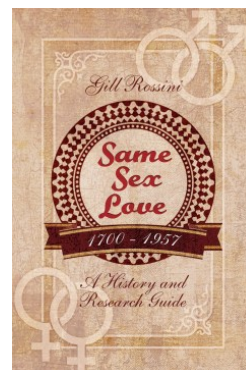

HISTORY & GENEALOGY LIBRARY

Some materials reference only.

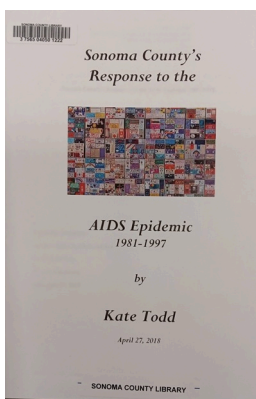

The Routledge History of Queer America

by Don Romesburg - R 306.7660973 Routledge
Featuring nearly thirty chapters on essential subjects and themes from colonial times through the present, this collection covers topics including: Rural vs. urban queer histories; Gender and sexual diversity in early American history; Intersectionality, exploring queerness in association with issues of race and class; Queerness and American capitalism; The rise of queer histories, archives, and collective memory; Transnationalism and queer history.

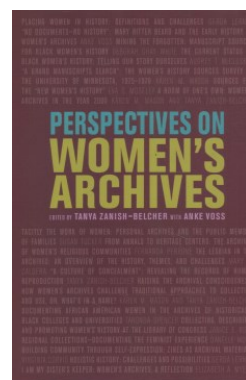

Same Sex Love, 1700-1957 : A History and Research Guide

by Gill Rossini - R 306.766 ROSSINI
Family History is often seen as the stories of people who were part of a traditional family unit, married to someone of the opposite gender, living their lives as 'normally' as possible. But what of the relatives who could not accept that this was the life for them, and were attracted to same-sex partners? Told in an empathetic way, this is the first history of same-sex relationships offering valuable insights into the lives of those who were often seen as outcasts.

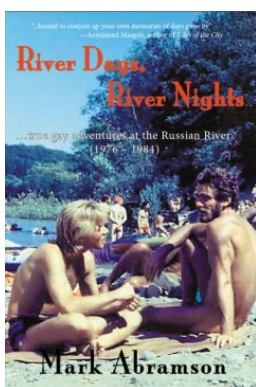

Sonoma County's Response to the AIDS Epidemic, 1981 - 1997

by Kate Todd - R 362.1969 TODD
Much of the existing historical scholarship on AIDS suggests that the social and cultural implications of the AIDS epidemic were inherently urban in nature, overshadowing the smaller, rural experience of AIDS. Rural Sonoma County was unique in that its West County gay and lesbian resort areas provided for the influence of urban dwellers on approaches to the AIDS epidemic that more isolated areas might not have experienced.

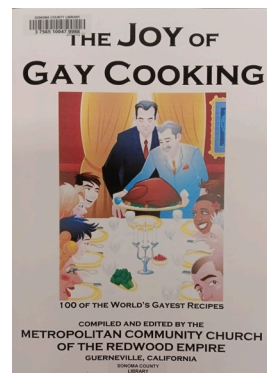

Perspectives on Women's Archives

by Tanya Zanish-Belcher - R 020.92
PERSPECTIVES
Women's archives hold a significant place in the historical record, illuminating stories of individuals who had an impact on our past in both powerful and quiet ways. The history of the archives themselves and the struggle to achieve equal representation within the historical record also tell a valuable story, one that deftly examines American culture and society over the past few centuries.

River Days, River Nights : True Gay Adventures at the Russian River 1976-1984

by Mark Abramson - R 306.766 ABRAMSON
Mark Abramson, a Minnesota farm boy, moved to San Francisco from Minneapolis in 1975 and dived right into gay life in the pre-AIDS world, including many day trips and overnight stays at the Russian River. In 1981 he decided to join a group of friends in fixing up an old house south of Guerneville. He soon found a job at the legendary Hexagon House/Woods Resort, where he got to meet a plethora of boyfriends, tricks, and celebrities.

The Joy of Gay Cooking : 100 of the world's gayest recipes

by Metropolitan Church of the Redwood Empire
R 641.5 JOY
"What other cookbook includes such diversity as the "Los Angeles County Annual Barbecue Beef Dinner for 75,000 people, the recipe for the infamous Agnes Gooch Cocktail, or the makings for White Trash Peanut Butter, Pickle and Potato Chip Sandwich?" Compiled by the Metropolitan Church in Guerneville, CA.