

BRONXVILLE HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF 1970 Authors ' Reading

Join us at the Library for readings by authors from Bronxville High School's Class of 1970.
Q&A, book sales, and signings to follow.
Registration requested, but not required.
Visit bronxvillepl.librarycalendar.com for more complete author biographies and to sign up.

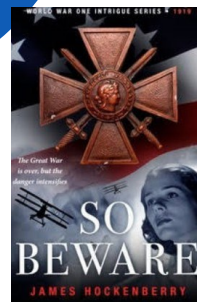

Lee Stockdale, who won the 2022 United Kingdom National Poetry Prize, will read from Gorilla and from his forthcoming collection, Bronxville.

SATURDAY,
OCTOBER 18, 2025
AT 3:00 PM

Kate Ferris, whose father was Rector at Christ Church, will read from her novel, Finding Lillie, historical fiction dealing with a privileged woman in the first years of the 1900s.

James Hockenberry, a second generation Bronxvillian, will read selections from his thriller suspense trilogy centered during World War I.

201 Pondfield Rd.
Bronxville, New York 10708 | (914) 337-7680
<https://bronxvillelibrary.org/>