

The New Blue of Yale

A Cappella Performance

Saturday, January 11, 2025
at 3:00 PM

The New Blue was established in 1969, making them not only Yale's first all-women's a cappella group, but also the oldest all-women's undergraduate organization on Yale's campus. They are now one of Yale's soprano-alto a cappella groups with an entirely self-arranged and dynamic repertoire, singing everything from current pop songs and folk music to jazz and blues. With incredible soloists, a gorgeous blend, and over 50 years of rich musical history, The New Blue continues to proudly stand (and sing!) as a symbol of living change at Yale.
