

TRUE CRIME 2025

The Amish Wife

by Gregg Olsen

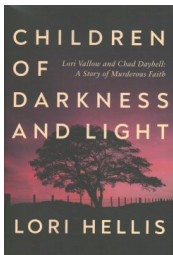

Returning to Amish Country to investigate the 1977 murder of pregnant wife and mother Ida Stutzman, the author finally uncovers the disturbing truth -- and the conspiracy of silence and secrets that kept it hidden for 45 years.

Ask Not

by Maureen Callahan

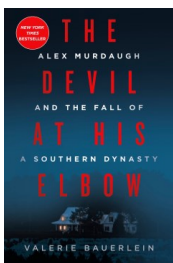

A bestselling author and journalist reveals the dark history of the generations of Kennedy men who have physically and psychologically abused the women in their lives despite their carefully curated depiction of honor and integrity.

Children of Darkness and Light

by Lori Hellis

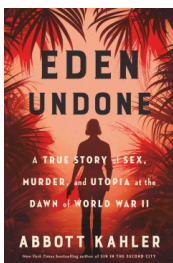

Delves into the shocking crime saga of Lori Vallow and Chad Daybell, whose apocalyptic beliefs and manipulative behavior led to multiple deaths leading up to a tragic discovery in Daybell's backyard.

The Devil at his Elbow

by Valerie Bauerlein

Power, privilege, and blood-this is the definitive and thrilling true story of Alex Murdaugh's violent downfall, from a veteran reporter who has become an authority on the case.

Eden Undone

by Abbott Kahler

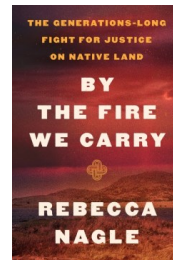

During the Great Depression, a Los Angeles oil mogul and his crew of Smithsonian scientists discover a group of European exiles trying to create a utopia in the Galapagos Islands only to find it descended into chaos and murder.

Art Heist

by Susie Hodge

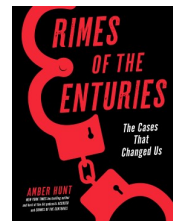

Explore the most famous stolen artworks that have never been recovered and an examination of the heists and their subsequent investigations. An intriguing investigation into over 50 elusive artworks that were stolen and never recovered.

By the Fire We Carry

by Rebecca Nagle

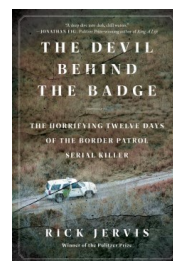

An award-winning reporter and member of the Cherokee Nation recounts the generations-long fight for tribal sovereignty in Eastern Oklahoma and the 1990s murder case that led the Supreme Court to reaffirm native rights to the land.

Crimes of the Centuries

by Amber Hunt

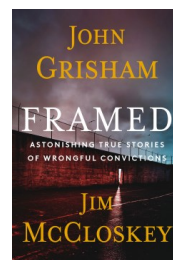

Crimes and trials have captured American consciousness since the Salem Witch Trials in the seventeenth century. And these cases over the centuries have fundamentally changed our society and shifted our legal system, resulting in the laws we have today.

The Devil Behind the Badge

by Rick Jervis

An award-winning journalist tells the gripping story of a U.S. Border Patrol agent and family man who violently executed four sex workers, shocking the small border town of Laredo, and raises serious questions about the border crisis and the abuse of law enforcement.

Framed

by John Grisham

Learn about ten harrowing tales of innocent Americans unjustly found guilty and convicted of crimes they didn't commit, shedding light on the flaws within the legal system that led to their imprisonment and the relentless battles for exoneration.

TRUE CRIME 2025

Guilty Creatures

by Mikita Brottman

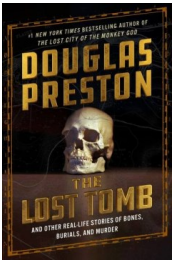

The critically-acclaimed author and psychoanalyst tells of the murder of Mike Williams committed under the haze of faith and devotion. Through tenacious research she probes the psychology of a couple who killed and explores how it feels to live for eighteen years with murder on the soul.

Searching for Savanna

by Mona Gable

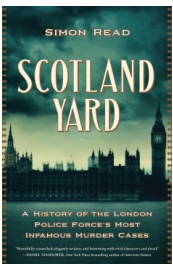

Featuring in-depth interviews and trial analysis, this gripping account of the 2017 murder of 22-year-old Savanna LaFontaine-Greywind brings to light the sexual and physical violence against Native American women and girls in America and the societal ramifications of government inaction.

The Lost Tomb

by Douglas Preston

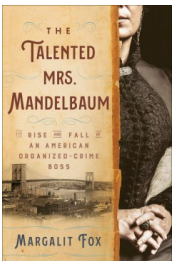

From the haunted country of Italy to the largest tomb in Egypt's Valley of the Kings, the bestselling author of The Lost City of the Monkey God presents extraordinary and enthralling true stories of Egyptian burial chambers, lost treasure, mysterious murders, strange crimes, and more.

Scotland Yard

by Simon Read

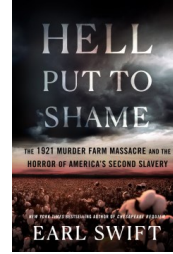

The idea of "Scotland Yard" is steeped in atmospheric stories of foggy London streets and murder by lamplight. Here, official case files and contemporary reporting tell the tales of some of history's most notorious murders -- with cases that proved to be landmarks in the field of criminal inquiry.

The Talented Mrs. Mandelbaum

by Margalit Fox

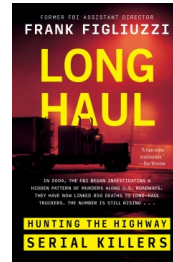

Painting a vibrant portrait of a now-forgotten heroine, this unforgettable story focuses on America's first lady of organized crime who amassed a huge fortune and turned theft into a viable, scalable business.

Hell Put to Shame

by Earl Swift

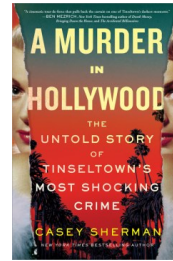

Based on extensive FBI notes of the case, learn the story of eleven black men who were bailed out of jail, forced into slavery on a Georgia farm in 1921, and eventually murdered, and follow the trials of the white plantation owner and the black overseer.

Long Haul

by Frank Figliuzzi

Drawing on his 25-year career as an FBI special agent, the author takes us along America's highways and interstates where at least 850 homicides have been linked to long-haul truck drivers, which caused the FBI to open a special unit, the Highway Serial Killings initiative.

A Murder in Hollywood

by Casey Sherman

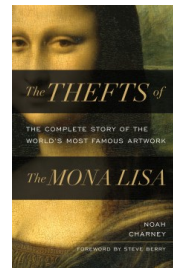

Explore how a famous Hollywood starlet from the 1940s and 1950s became involved with an abusive West Coast mob boss, and the explosive trial that resulted from his murder at the hands of the her daughter.

The Sing Sing Files

by Dan Slepian

Uncover a two-decade-long personal and professional odyssey in which Slepian used his investigative skills to prove the innocence of not just two men falsely convicted of murder by New York courts, but four other inmates as well.

The Thefts of the Mona Lisa

by Noah Charney

A bestselling author examines the criminal biography of Leonardo da Vinci's Mona Lisa, separating fact from fiction in the story of what is not only the most famous art heist in history, but which is the single most famous theft of all time.

Sherwood Public Library

22560 SW Pine St
Sherwood, Oregon 97140 | 503-625-6688
www.sherwoodoregon.gov/library