

THE UNDERGROUND RAILROAD IN IOWA

Thursday, July 31, 5:30 pm

Join storyteller Darrin Crow, as he shares the fascinating story of the small town of Salem, Iowa, and the heroic citizens who helped hundreds of enslaved people find their way north to freedom.

This program is free and open to the public, all ages welcome to attend.

This event is made possible by the Newton Public Library Foundation.