TRENCHES

A special exhibit from the Smoky Hill Museum

Explore tales of Kansas soldiers and their harrowing accounts of life in the trench.

“Fourteen months overseas, five months in the mud, murder and madness on the front line; gassed, poisoned by the waters of a poisoned spring As soon as Chester returned from France it was apparent to us, who loved him and knew him here that his health and mind were shattered”

- Mrs. Lotta Cooper, Belleville Telescope, Feb. 9, 1922
