► Freedom to Read Week

October 5th – 10th
10:00 AM – 5:00 PM

"Banned Books Week" is a week recognized by the American Library Association.

During this week, libraries across the country seek to raise awareness about censorship surrounding books.

Groups of all kinds have sought to ban titles for any number of reasons, but these bans defy the trust that must be inherent between a reader and their library.

You have a First Amendment right to read what you wish, and libraries aim to keep fighting for that.

Stop by the library, or check out our website during Banned Books Week for more information.

► Cricut Workshop

October 17th
9:30 AM – 5:30 PM

A detailed workshop for getting started on a Cricut cutting machine.

These versatile little machines can create artwork for t-shirts, mugs, and much, much more.

► Halloween Story Hour

October 28th
4:00 – 4:45 PM

Reading "Haunted Party" by Iza Trapani and "Luna and the Witch Throw A Halloween Party"

Costumes welcome!

We will read stories learn a silly dance and play a game!

► Trick or Treat on Main Street

October 29th
3:15 – 5:00 PM

The library is participating in Trick or Treat on Main Street!

Add us to your stops for the evening.
